Mojitos

Mojitos look best in pretty clear glassware – to display the mint and limes mixed in the drink. For this reason, always put the mint in the glass first, then the limes and sugar, then muddle, so as not to damage the delicate mint leaves.

fresh sliced lime

1 tbsp. sugar

Muddle

5 ct. Bacardi Limon

Fill w/ club soda

Splash 7

Shake and pour

Raspberry Mojito

5 ct. Bacardi Razz or any other fruity flavor

Fill w/ club soda

4 ct. white chocolate liqueur
4 ct. dark chocolate liqueur
Chocolate syrup rim

Chocolate Banana

4 ct. vanilla vodka
5 ct. white chocolate liqueur

Cookie crumb rim

The Frappuccino

Champagne and Sparkling Wine

Champagne and sparkling wine should always be chilled and never shaken. Most importantly, when popping the cork, always point the bottle straight up away from your guest's eyes.

BNO Bubbly

The red currant nose offers subtle hints of raspberry jam, while the palate bursts forth with ripe red fruit permeating the light, effervescent mouth feel. This is no buttoned-down Champagne; this is a lively, juicy sparkler with plenty of fun fruit flavors.

A Twist on a Bellini

BNO Bubbly Sparkling Wine

Fill flute to $\frac{3}{4}$ with Bubbly

Top with choice of pineapple, peach, mango, strawberry or guava nectar

(Jumex brand is available in cans at most grocery stores)
